EAST KOOTENAY

THIS SECTION TO BOOM NEXT SEASON

James Warden Looks Up the Prospects for Next Summer—Big Tie Contract for the C. P. R.—Left For England Mining News—Announcement to B.C.

GRANBY, January 22.—E. W. Warden is in town engaged in making his annual audit on behalf of two large lumber corporations. He will, likely be engaged for at least two months.

James F. Warden, who is at the head of the syndicate that purchased the Island of the Bonanza Islands, and who is a well known mining man, paid this town a flying visit this morning. He and his friends would be found operating in the district.

The Golden Lumber Company have secured a $20,000 contract with the C. P. R. for railway ties. A new portable saw mill is already in operation on their timber and 12,000 ties per day are being turned out at this mill alone.

In addition to this two other saw mills are engaged in getting out mill timber and ties for the summer contracts. The company have 175 men on the payroll and already have 35 loaded cars of ties on the siding delivered to the C. P. R. The general "Mike" is in charge and therefore it is expected that the work will go ahead with a vim.

Messrs W. G. and Ernest Mitchell have laid a few days ago for the old country, carrying with them many samples of ore taken from the various claims located by them in the fall and winter. They are expected to return in March to resume their mining operations.

The Haldimand Mining Co. have secured a $20,000 contract with the C. P. R. for railway ties. A new portable saw mill is already in operation on their timber and 12,000 ties per day are being turned out at this mill alone.

Several development companies are completing arrangements to operate in the East Kootenay this summer. They are not in question as to their success in the future. They are expected to return in March to resume their mining operations.
